Methodology

- Telephone survey of the general public
  - 1008 interviews with a national random sample of Canadians 18 years of age and older
    - ✓ Interview period: October 20 to October 30, 2006
    - ✓ National results valid within 3.1 percentage points, 19 times out of 20
  - The margin of error increases when the results are sub-divided
  - It should also be noted that the refusal rate and other measurement errors could also increase the margin of error
- All the data were statistically weighted to ensure the sample's regional, gender and age composition reflects that of the actual population of Canada according to Census data.

Top Line Results

Attitudes towards a peace-support role in Afghanistan

Q: Right now, the Canadian Forces are involved in a broader peace-SUPPORT operation in Afghanistan, helping to rebuild the country and maintain security with our troops fighting on the frontline if necessary. Would you say you strongly support, somewhat support, somewhat oppose or strongly oppose these contributions?
